Southern Wales has loads to offer – we have 2 cities (Cardiff and Newport), over 30 castles to visit, numerous country parks and nature reserves, great food producers, unique attractions like the Royal Mint Experience and much more.

Cardiff – the Capital of Wales

Visits can include the impressive Cardiff Castle, the National Museum Cardiff or St Fagans National Museum of History. The city centre has great shopping options and you can explore the story of the city at the Museum of Cardiff. Cardiff Bay offers great walking tours, boat trips, and attractions like the Senedd and Pierhead Building, as well as Techniquest. Entertainment centres across the city include The Millennium Centre, St David's Hall and the Principality Stadium.

City of Newport

At the heart of the city is the Transporter Bridge which will be reopening in 2023 with new group facilities. Attractions include The Newport Museum and Art Gallery, the Newport Medieval Ship, the Roman Legionary town of Isca (Caerleon), the Newport Wetlands and Tredegar House and Park which is a National Trust property.
